

Classroom Expectations and Procedures

Videos. Write a summary of key points from each video. Use at least ONE complete sentence for each summary.

Student Expectations Handbook. Using a copy of the Handbook, respond to each prompt or answer question:

From Page 1 ...

How many “days” of classes are associated with most topics in Honeycutt Science? _____

Which day is associated with the following “Evidence/Outcome” listed?

Completed pdf file ...day 3 ...

Completed note capture sheet _____

Delivered presentations _____

Completed work packet _____

Write one of the student actions associated with each “day” listed:

Day 1 _____

Day 2 _____

Day 3 _____

Day 4 _____

YOUR NAME _____ Date _____ Class Period _____

From Page 2 ...

Copy the first two sentences in the indented paragraph called “Textbook reading.”

First sentence _____

Second sentence _____

In the paragraph “Small group work” a sentence says “Refrain from off-topic conversations.” In your own words, what does this mean?

In the paragraph “Lab work and special project” a sentence says “Refrain from horse-play and jokes always.” In your own words, what does this mean?

From Page 3 ...

Will any credit be given for late work when a student does not have an excused absence? Yes No. (circle one)

Will quizzes be announced ahead of time? Always Sometimes Never (circle one)

In your own words, describe a rubric. Make a best-guess if you do not yet know.

YOUR NAME _____ Date _____ Class Period _____

From Page 4 ...

Copy the paragraph headings shown in Bold Print.

From Page 5 ...

In your own words, what does this page describe?

From Page 6 ...

In your own words, what does this page illustrate?

YOUR NAME _____ Date _____ Class Period _____

Based on what you have read and seen in the Student Expectations Handbook, how would you answer the following questions that might be asked by a new student joining our class?

What kind of work will be doing in the class?

Are there any special rules I should know about?

What do you think I will like most about the class?

What is something that may be difficult to do?
