

Make a Presentation

Activity 03

Objectives

---

From this lesson, you should be able to:

- Summarize instructions for this activity
- Avoid plagiarism (copy/paste)
- Attempt 3 suggestions for your presentation

---

Key Terms

---

Plagiarism

With presentations and essays, many students “copy/paste” text and images from web sources without also citing the source.

Learning Objectives

These short sentences typically begin with an action verb. These state what a participant should be able to “do” following the lesson.

Take-Away

This sentence or short paragraph is like a summary. It is the one BIG idea your classmates should learn (“take-away”) from your presentation.

Diagram Types

There are many different “types” of diagrams and illustrations. Here, you are encouraged to use of the “seven diagram types” described in Technique 15 on this site (HoneycuttScience.com).

Quick Look – The “7 Diagram Types”

Example Citation

Honeycutt, J. (2018). Seven Diagram Types. Technique 15 Suggestions.
<https://technique.15.1.JobAidReference.pdf>

Summarized Suggestions

Avoid Plagiarism

plagium™ Jrl Analyze File Pricing Help

Plagium helps you to ensure the originality of a text by detecting and identifying possible plagiarisms.

Write a Brief, Main Take-Away

Take-Away

This sentence or short paragraph is like a summary. It is the one BIG idea your classmates should learn (“take-away”) from your presentation.

Include Learning Objectives

Objectives

From this lesson, you should be able to:

- Summarize instructions for Activity 03
- Recognize three important suggestions
- Avoid plagiarism

Illustrate Ideas with Diagrams

Technique 15

«Previous Next Technique >

Creative Concepts – Make a Presentation

Introduction

This topic intends emphasize the importance of creativity and aesthetics in the presentation of qualitative data to an audience. In particular, this topic introduces seven varieties of diagrams commonly used in PowerPoint-styled presentations.

This topic is related to “21st Century Skills” listed on this site as Technique 13. Creativity is one of the “4Cs” of 21st Century Skills.

Summary

Main Take-Away

You've got this!